are inconsistent with our National welfare, with the material interest of the people. A man should reversnee his conscience as king in politics. The first duty of our people is to themselves. This principle has been formulated by the Republican party and embodied in its candidates. It has been repudlated by the Democratic party through the acts of a Democratic President and by the resolutions of the Democratic National Convention. In this conflict men should range themselves according to their honest convictions, not according to imaginary bounds, without regard to the wild claims of a party which has forgotten its mission and forgotten its trust. Thousands of Democrats will your for the next President, General Harrison.

MR FLOWER COMES OUT FOR HILL POSITIVE THAT THE GOVERNOR WILL BE RE-

ELECTED. Thus far Roswell P. Flower has not been around the Democratic headquarters a great deal. He only dropped in once to leave his $25,000 contribution and then he hurried away. The reason for this is said to be that he has been in doubt about which course to pursue in regard to Hill. Naturally, Mr. Flower would not grieve much to see the Governor relegated to Chemung County. The friendship between them is only nominal and Mr. Flower cannot help feeling that with Hill out of the way, his own chances of being struck by the necessary lightning would be vastly im-

Mr. Flower has concluded, however, that it will be better to wait a while longer, or at least not to an-tagonize the Governor, for he has come out squarely in favor of Hill's renomination. He expressed his sentiments on this point in the presence of ex-Judge Muller, the Governor's lieutenant, in the Heffman House last night and talked almost as strongly as Edward Kearney in favor of the Governor. "Hill will got it by acclamation," he remarked, " and will surely We are going to carry the State by 50,000. Mr. Flower did not attempt to explain how this remarkable result would be obtained, but proceeded to discuss the question of Lieutenant-Governor. He did not think that Cantor would do for the reason that if a man were taken from New-York City he would have to be acceptable to both factions. Cantor was The inference was that Mr. Flower might be, but he modestly waived all discussion of such an idea.

be just the man for this place despite the fact that he nearly overthrew Hill and the party by refusing to accept the nomination when it was offered to him in 1885. Before going last night Mr. Flower turned in-terviewer himself.

"I'd like to know," he said, "where in the world The Tribune found out that I gave $25,000 to the Democratic National Committee."

"Is the statement incorrect!" was asked, but Mr. Flower changed the subject immediately.

THIS LOOKS LIKE WILFUL LYING. CONGRESSMAN GUENTHER DENOUNCES A DEM-

OCRATIC CAMPAIGN STORY. "The Star" yesterday printed a story about an Ital ian immigrant who appeared as a witness before the Congressional Investigation Committee on Tuesday. The story was based on the fact that Antonio Sgrambiglia appeared with a campaign badge bearing the portrait of General Harrison pinned to his neck-scarf. On seeing this ornament, the sagacious reporter of 'The Star' made up his mind that here was a political sensation. He sat down, and with the aid of a vivid and audacious imagination concocted the story that he had sought out Sgrambiglia, and through an interpreter had wormed from the Italian the awful fact that a leading Republican had bribed him, for one dollar, to wear the badge, and had told him he could vote the Republican ticket next fall by simply representing that he had lived here five years. In conversation with a Tribune reporter las evening, Congressman Guenther gave the following account of "The Star" reporter and his story:

On Wodnesday, a young man representing himself as F. G. Hunt, of 'The New-York Star," came here to ask the address of Antonio Sgrambiglia, saying that he wanted to find out why he wore a Repubsaying that he wanted to find out why he wore a Repub-lican badge before the committee on the previous day. He was told that we did not know the man's address, as he was one of those unfortunates who had no home and was Hving about on charity. The reporter made a clean breast of his intentions, and intinaved that, whether he found the man or not, he would get up a big story on the Recabilization and distinguishmentals. We are sur-Republicans and their campaign methods. We are sur-prised at the violence, falsification and malice which were worked up in this morning "Star" with this petry circumstances as its foundation. But the audacity of the writer was only fully appreciated by us when he called here to-day and admitted that he did not see the Italian at all, that he had composed the yarn from his imagination, and his only defence was that "it smacked of the truth." I told him he might consider himself the champion liar of the New-York press. But it is the management of "The Star" I blame, and not the foolish boy who has thus made himself ridiculous. It was the earnest desire of every member of the committee to keep the investigation free from polities, and all will be very angry when they hear of this stupid falsebood.

AN EX-PROHIBITIONIST FOR HARRISON A handsome Harrison and Morton banner was swung to the breeze last night in front of the Republican County Committee's headquarters, in the Weldon building. at Montgomery and Washington sts., Jersey City. Fully 2,000 people assembled in the street. The Toffey Guards, in their brilliant uniforms, and carrying terches, marched down from the hill under the command of Captain Laws, and attracted general attention by their fine marching. The banner is made of network and has excellent portraits of the candidates. After the banner-raising a meeting was organized in the committee rooms. Ex-Judge Seymour, chairman of the committee of arrangements, called the meeting to order and made a brief speech. Ex-Mayor Collins was selected for chairman, and delivered a brief ad-

Speeches were made by General John Ramsey and insellor E. A. Cowles, Mr. Cowles has been promment in the Prohibition party, and is counsel of the law and Order League of Jersey City, but he said that he was with the Republicans in this fight. He said that if any man who had read in The Tribune the list of appointments made by the present Administration, and cut it out for reference as he had done, could vote the Democratic ticket, he was sorry for that man. "There has been no denial of that arraignment," he said, "and I believe it will have the effect of giving the Republican party another twenty years trial of power."

HEBREWS WITH THE TRUE POLITICAL FAITH. The Independent Republican Campaign Club of the XIIth Assembly District is a prosperous organization composed almost entirely of Hebrews, many of whom will this fall cast their first votes as American citizens. They are in favor of protection to a man, and when they met at No. 120 Columbia-st. last night they had over twenty new members bringing up the total on the roll to over one hundred. They appointed a campaign committee consisting of the following members: G. Sprickerhoff, the president of the club; H. Kanengieser, the secretary; Bernard Greenberger, treasurer, and Herman Roth, G. Bauer, Jacob Weiss, and Bartholomew Dennerlein. The club expects to do effective work among the Germans of the East bide this fall.

GENERAL HARRISON ENJOYS A QUIET DAY. Indianapolis, Aug. 2 (Special).-After his return from the country, where he spent the night, General Harrison remained at home to-day, devoting himself mainly to the vain endeavor to keep cool and comfortable This morning at 10 o'clock he received a delegation of expert swine judges, who are here attending a meeting of the National Swine Breeders' Association. There were no speeches, but General Harrison exchanged a few words with each of the visitors. One of the large delegations that had arranged to call upon the General to-day found it necessary to postpone its visit until to-morrow, when hundreds of Resublicans will come in from Montgomery and Clinton counties. On Saturday, delegations from three or four places will be in the city. This afternoon General Harrison attended the funeral of Dr. Winslow 8. Pierce, of New-York, a relative of Vice-President Hendricks. Dr. Pierce was an old acquaintance, and during his last illness the General wrote him a letter full of sympathy and expressing hope for his recovery. At the funeral to-day he was one of the pall-bearers.

ANOTHER MILL CLOSED BY THE MILLS BILL. Louisville, Ky., Aug. 2 (Special) .- A "Courier-Journal" reporter to-day asked W. J. Tapp, a jute manufacturer, why he had closed his factory, and was expecting Tapp to say it was on account of the jute trust, but Tapp answered: "I closed because I was tired of operating to let these cotton men make 100 per cent off of what I was losing money on. I don't care to be reduced to the condition of that street pedler there, and if the Mills bill becomes a law I might as well sell my factory for old iron." When will you open your mill again?" asked the

"When they get through fooling with the tariff."

SEVENTEEN HAD BEEN DEMOCRATS Kingston, N. Y., Aug. 2 (Special) .- Out of fortyfive voters in the newly organized Harrison and Morton Club at Port Ewen, seventeen have always been Democrats. An enthusiastic Republican meeting was held at Pine Hill, in the Catskills, last night. Among the speakers was Assemblyman E. H. Crosby, of New-York.

REPUBLICAN VICTORIES IN TENNESSEE. SUCCESS GENERALLY IN THE EASTERN COUN-TIES.

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 2 (Special).—The county elections throughout East Tennessee to-day have, as a rule, resulted in victories for the Republicans. Reports from Blount, Union, Grainger, Cocke, Sevier, Anderson and Claiborne Counties are to the effect that the Republicans have carried most of the offices. The election in Knox County has been unusually quiet, although votes have been bought freely.

Up to midnight no excitement of a grave nature has occurred, and all parties are reconciled to the result.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN MEMPHIS

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 2.—At the election to-day this county (Shelby) went Democratic by about 1,300 majority. Memphis gave a Democratic majority of majority. A sheriff and other county officers were voted for.

ENTHUSIASM AND A BANNER IN NEWARK.

That Newark is clearly in favor of Protection and of Harrison and Morton was plainly demonstrated last night by the manner in which the people turned out to attend the banner raising and ratification meeting held under the auspices of the Young Republi-can Club, one of the leading political organizations of the State. As early as 7 o'clock the crowd began to gather at the club's headquarters in Market-st., near Broad-st., and from that time until 8 o'clock ward organizations came from every section of the city, headed by martial music. When the clubs had all collected there were thousands of people in front of the club rooms, while the rooms were besieged with people who were paying their respects to J. C. Burrows, of Michigan and William E. Mason, of Chicago, who were guests of the club. Soon after 8 o'clo the street in front of the club-rooms was lighted with the street in front of the club-rooms was lighted with red fire and fireworks, and a moment later a magnificent Harrison and Morton banner was unfurled across the street amid the cheers of thousands of people and the booming of cannon.

The various clubs then fell in line and marched to the Grand Opera House, where they were preceded by an immense throng. The meeting was quickly begun, Mr. Bray being chosen as chairman. He delivered a stirring address in favor of protection. He was followed by Mr. Mason, J. P. Foster, of New-York, and Congressman Lehibach.

ORGANIZING TO OPPOSE FREE TRADE. There was a large and enthusiastic meeting of busi-ness men of the XVIth Assembly District held last night at No. 263 Third-ave. for the purpose of opposing the Mills bill and Free Trade. They elected P. M. Spelman, chairman, an old advocate of labor reform; James Williams, vice-chairman; Edward Kennedy, secretary, and James Keegan, treasurer. The young or ganization intends to hold weekly meetings with good speeches to impart knowledge on this vital question for American workingmen.

The roll-books will be open constantly and it is hoped that every man in the district who favors anti-free-trade principles will join the club. A big list of members was the result of the first meeting.

REPUBLICANS WANT TARIFF LITERATURE. The regular meeting of the Republican National Executive Committee yesterday was attended by Chairman Quay, Colonel Dudley, General New, Mr. Clarkson and Senator Hubert, who is acting secretary in the absence of Mr. Fassett; J. Manchester Haynes and Mr. Fessenden. The proceedings were private. There was a general interchange of views regarding the progress of the canvass and a number of letter read from various parts of the country. The tone of all of them was highly encouraging. The demand for protection literature continues to increase. A great mass of it has been supplied by the Home Market Club of Boston, but more is needed. Interest naturally centres now in the Maine election which occurs in September. The canvass there will be formally opened by Mr. Blaine himself on August 15 at Augusta. Congressman Buri.ws, of Michigan, and Congressman McKinley, of Ohlo, will speak at Trenton, August 14. Mr. Burrows will address the Republicans of Yonkers to-morrow night. The working force, clerks, correspondents, etc., of the Republican State Committee will be at No. 18 West Twenty-fifth-st., but the officials' quarters will be at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. tone of all of them was highly encouraging.

AN IRISHMAN STRONG FOR HARRISON.

Another Democratic politician of Elirabeth has come out unqualifiedly for Harrison and Morton and protection. This time it is Patrick Donahue, a contractor, who lives at No. 236 Fulton-st., and employs a large number of laborers. In an interview with a Tribuno reporter

Mr. Donahue said:

"It is perfectly true that I shall vote for Harrison.
I am done with Cleveland, and that chiefly because I do not believe him to be a true Democrat. If he was, he would have never written that English free-trade mesasge of his. Besides, his behavior during the four years he has occupied the White House has been any-thing but Democratic. I have been a Democrat all my life, and voted for Cleveland in 1834 because I thought he was a pure man, but I fall to see where the purity I honor a straight out-and-out Republic any man who is not afraid to show his true colors, but I despise a hypocrite such as Cleveland has proved him soil to be. Free trade stands not a ghost of a show, because the American people will not have it. Yes, indeed, there are many Democrats who will vote as I intend to hereabouts, and I could give you their names, but you will hear from them in November. There are eight votes solid for Harrison under my roof alone. It is my opinion that the thinking Democrats are heartily ashamed of the present Administration, as Cleveland will

NOTES OF THE CANVASS.

Naval Constructor John B. Hoover, on duty at the Navy Yard, has committed an unpardonable offence. John J. Burke was a writer in the Navigation Department, and a Republican as well, and for the latter reason Secretary Whitney some time ago ordered his discharge. Yesterday Constructor Hoover had the audacity to appoint him as laborer in his department, and a hornet's nest may settle about his cars before the week is ended. Threatening rumors are already started. *

The XIth Assembly District Harrison and Morton Campaign Club held a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting last evening in the Ashland House, John S. Smith presiding. The chairman introduced the first speaker, J. M. Wall. After Mr. Wall's speech, P. J. of the eight hundred men under Colonel Cavanagh's com

CANDIDATE MATSON'S UNSPOKEN SPEECH,

A SPICY DEBATE ON PENSIONS-GENERAL HO-VEY'S STRONG SPEECH-CUTCHEON EX-POSES DEMOCRATIC FALSE PRETENCES.

THY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE. Washington, Aug. 2.—This was "pension day" in the House. The phrase is not used to denote that the day was devoted to legislation for the benefit of dis-abled and needy Union veterans or of the widows and other dependent relations, for the Democratic majority has determined that no such measure shall be enacted at this session. A necessary and patriotic duty, however, was performed in a satisfactory manner by Gen eral Hovey, of Indiana, and General Cutcheon, of Michigan, who thoroughly exposed the misstatements and overthrew the pretensions of Matson and McKinney in regard to the attitude of the Administration and the Democratic party on the subject of pensions. The ball was opened by General Hovey in reply to an unspoken speech which was smuggled into "The Record" of July 29 by Candidate Matson, of Indiana. The head lines of Matson's "speech" assert that it was delivered in the House on Saturday, July 2a. Colonel Matson delivered no speech on that day. Moreover, the report of the proceedings of Saturday does not show that he obtained "leave to print" his unspoken speech, or that he was even present in the House that day. A close reading of the "speech" drove General Hovey to the conclusion that it was one which Matson was afraid to utter in open House, lest its symmetry should be so marred and its misstate-ments so riddled on the spot that its value for home consumption in the Indiana campaign would be destroyed. Candidate Matson is chairman of the Committee on Invalid Pensions, and he appears also to hold a fat retainer in the shape of official favors from the "Physical Wrech" as the latter's apologist and defender in the House. For example, he printed in his "speech" a statement showing that the net increase in the numter of pensions paid at the Indianapolis agency for the number of "certificates of increase" to pensioners stready on the roll was 16,887. These figures were furnished to Matson by Black's "literary bureau," and while they are deceptive and misleading as pre-sented, they serve to show that Candidate Matson has a strong "pull" at the Pension Bureau.

General Hovey has devoted years of his life welfare of the veterans of the Union Army, and his study of the subject of pensions has been most thorough, as his masterly speech to-day fully showed. His keen and merciless exposure of Matson's false pretensions of the Democratic party in regard to Union soldier was heartily enjoyed by the Republicans, and his denunctation of the outrageous and infamous Democratic conspiracy to throttle every attempt at pension legislation during this session was as bitter and effective as it was justifiable. He showed that, with a large number of general pension bills on the calendars of the House, and of his committee, Candidate Matson has not had a single day set apart for the consideration of such measures in the House, while nearly every other standing committee of that body has sought, and obtained, special orders to have its General Hovey analyzed and made some stinging comments on a number of President Cleveland's pension vetoes which Matson has defended. General Hovey's speech was heartfly applauded by the Republicans. It should be widely circulated, together with the speeches of Grosvenor, Cutcheon, and Henderson on the same subject.

Mr. McKinney, a New-Hampshire Democrat, essayed to defend the "Physical Wreck" and his master, and to show that the pensioners are indebted mainly to the Democratic party for all legislation in their behalf during the last dozen years. McKinney is a Universalist preacher, and the witty Illinois member, Mason, re-cently observed in debate that "his theological belief ermits the gentleman from New-Hampshire to make any Indianapolis, Aug. 2.—The consolidated Greenback and United Labor party of the VIIth Congressional sequences hereafter." Whether that he true or not, it is certain that much of McKinney's speech to-day proved that he possesses a most fertile and picturesque, not to say unbridled, imagination. He dealt largely in "statistics" which had been prepared and "cooked" which are designed to deceive the Union veteran and provoked interruptions by Republican members, and before he had concluded he became greatly excited, and claimed the protection of the presiding officer.

General Cutcheon, of Michigan, closed the debate In an eloquent speech, going over some of the ground which he traversed three weeks ago, and bringing out new facts to prove the insincerity of Democratic professions in behalf of the soldier, and the dishonesty of the claim that the veterans owe anything to the perty which fought them in front and rear during the bloody struggle to preserve the Union. General Cutcheon's investigation showed that every one of the general pension acts—except the one granting pensions to survivors of the war with Mexico—which have passed the House since the war when the Democrats have had control of that body, would have been defeated if the votes of Democratic Representatives only had been counted. In other words, the Republicans in Congress are entitled to all the credit and the Democratic party to none of it.

On the whole, it was a pretty bad day in the House for Democratic demagogues who are willing to go any length in their attempt to deceive Union veterans and induce them to act with a party which hates and despises them. in an eloquent speech, going over some of the ground

NEW-JERSEY'S TRIBUTE TO THE NATION. Washington, Aug. 2.—The Speaker received to-day from the hands of Mr. Phelps a communication from Governor Green, of New-Jersey, announcing that the statues of Richard Stockton and Philip Kearney were ready for delivery and were offered by the State of New-Jersey as that State's contribution to the Na-tional Hall of Statuery. The Speaker will to morrow lay the communication before the House, when Mr. Phelps will ask unanimous consent that Tuesday, considering a concurrent resolution to be offered by him, giving the thanks of Congress to New-Jersey and formally accepting the gift. The same resolution will be offered in the Senate by Senator McPherson, that action may be taken in both branches of Congress on the same day

Washington, Aug. 2.—The Treasury De-partment has issued a circular to banksaying that complaints have received of an alleged indisposition on the part of bank officers to brand counterfeit notes coming into their possession in the course of business and calling their attention to the requirements of the law on the subject. The circular says:

The surest way to prevent a reissue of counterfeit notes is by branding or cutting thereon any of the following words: "Counterfeit," "altered," "worthless," "bad." If, by inadvertence, a gouline note should be thus branded or cut, no loss can accrue to the person performing the act, every National bank being composited to redeen, its issue.

TO ASSIST NEGROES TO EMIGRATE TO AFRICA Washington, Aug. 2.—By request, Senator Sawyer to-day proposed an amendment to the Sundry Civil bill directing the Secretary of the Treasury to pay to the United States and Congo National Emigration Steamship Company for every adult person of color who shall desire to emigrate to Africa on the ships of their line a sum equal to $100 for passage and rations for sixty days.

PLANS OF CHIEF JUSTICE FULLER.

Washington, Aug. 2.-Chief Justice Fuller and Mrs. Fuller, who left here for New-York this afternoon will return to Chicago on Saturday. Having ascer-ained that there was no public necessity that he should at this late day in the recess of the court qualify and make an order for a new assignment of Justices to the several circuits, the Chief Justice concluded to postpone taking the oath of office until the reassembling of the court in October. Besides, this course seemed most in accord with precedents.

PLAIN TALK ON MR. BAYARD'S TREATY. MR. RIDDLEBERGER'S SCATHING DENUNCIA-

TION OF THE ADMINISTRATION. Washington, Aug. 2.-Mr. Sherman secured consideration for the Fisheries Treaty in the Senate today by a vote of 24 to 22, whereupon Mr. Riddle-berger, rising to speak, said that the vote settled conclusively the only question that could be in contro-versy at any time in reference to the treaty. That was that the Republican party favored its ratification. It was a party question in England; it was proper to consider it as such in this country. He proposed to bring the treaty before the Senate, as a question which concerned the people of this country, outside of the mere catching and curing of fish. It concerned not only the people of the whole Atlantic Coast, but also the people on the coast of Chesapeake Bay, because Judge Lovi Woodbury, a Democratic jurist of acknowledged eminence, had given it as his opinion that, under the twelfth article of the treaty, the Canadian fishermen would have a right to participate in all the coast, bay, sound and river fisheries of the United States; and that Congress or the States would be precluded from passing any laws on the subject without the consent of the British Government. He (Mr. Riddleberger) would be willing to risk the whole case on that one opinion. He quoted from Sir Charles Tupper's speech in the Canadian Parliament, which, said, had never been denied, to the effect that Mr Bayard had assured him that, if the ilsheries irritation was allayed, there would be no obstacle to arranging for a free interchange of the natural products of both countries, in accordance with the policy of the Demo-cratic party. "That meant," said Mr. Riddleberger, that the Fisheries Treat was intended to lead up to

He arraigned the Administration and the Demo cratic party as a pro-English organization, and he proceeded to read extracts from English periodicals to prove that the Mills bill and the President's tariff message were in the direction of Free Trade.

He read an extract from the speech of S. S. Cox in the House, speaking of Protectionists as robbers, ras cals and plunderers. He was not surprised at that sentiment when he read a book published by the same gentleman many years ago, entitled "The Buckeye Abroad," in which were such sentences as these:

Old England-God bless her. With tears in my eyes I besech heaven's best benison upon her. I remembel her only as the land of noble deeds and generous hearts . I hope that the Pope will create no Cardinals for America. . . The ill-success attending the Wiseman experiment in England will prevent the Pope from creating any Cardinals in Protestant countries.

He knew that Mr. Cox had in the House debates pleaded the "baby act" in reference to that book, and he supposed that he would plead dotage in reference to his later utterances.

Coming back to the freaty, Mr. Riddleberger de-

We will never be a National Government until w whipped England for the third time. Our boasted Monroe Doctrine is being annulled and wiped from the face of the earth to-day, and we find gentlemen on the other side of the chamber saying that we must arbitrate or we must fight. I would 2s soon make a treaty of commerce with the Fiji Islanders as with the British Government. It becomes the so-called American Democracy to make such a duty of this Government is to let that one know that the liberty for which our fathers fought and which they wen is still cherished, and that we have nothing in common with a Government which does not at least recognize

Mr. Morgan then spoke in behalf of the ratification of Mr. Bayard's treaty. Coming down to the Treaty of 1818 he was asked by Mr. Hoar: " Do you think that the Treaty of 1818 would have been improved if it had contained a provision that the trial of our fishermen should be before Canadian tribunals, with the burden of proof on our fishermen ?"

Mr. Morgan-I think that the Treaty of 1818 is greatly improved by the present negotiations. Mr. Hoar-That is not an answer to my question.

Mr. Morgan-I do not propose to answer any ir-plevant question. Mr. Evarts-Suppose the Treaty of 1818 were abrogated by either country, what would be the subsisting arrangement between the two countries respecting the Mr. Morgan-I judge that we should have no rights Mr. Evarts-I understood the Senator to say the

Mr. Morgan-I said, and I say now, that when a bill is brought here to abrogate the Treaty of 1818; I would join the Senator from New-York, although I know it would lead to war, in voting for it and in recovering our rights resulting from the Revolutionary War.

War.

Mr. Evarts-Then it is worth while to fight for our Revolutionary rights, but not for our rights under the Treaty of 1818!

Mr. Morgan—It is not worth while to fight about a matter which you intend to give up. If we have to wear a yoke, let us put something soft under the collar.

Mr. Morgan concluded his speech with an attack upon tile report of the majority of the Foreign Relations Committee.

The presiding officer announced the appointment of the select committee under Mr. Hoar's resolutions as to the relations of commerce and business between the United States and Canada as follows: Senators Hoar, Allison, Hale, Dolph, Pugh, Eustis and Blodgett.

HOW PAN-ELECTRIC ATKINS EARNS HIS SALARY. Washington, Aug. 2 (Special). Soon after "Re-former" Atkins became Commissioner of Indian Affairs, under the Pan-Electric Administration, he dismissed a faithful and efficient clerk who had been promoted from time to time, because, as he said, there was nothing for the clerk to do, and it was contrary to his principles to allow the public money to be used to pay the salaries of men who were not actually working for the Government. Some months ago "Reformer" Atkins became a candidate for the United States Senate from Tennessee, to succeed "Reformer" Harris, one of his Pan-Electric partners. He tendered his resignation, to take effect on the appointment of his suc cessor, and for several months has been in Tenness actively engaged in the Senatorial canvass, and regularly drawing his salary as Commissioner of Indian Affairs. No successor has been appointed, and probably none will be until the election returns on members of the Legislature have been received. If the result is unfavorable, "Reformer" Atkins may con-clude to withdraw his resignation.

PHASES OF THE RECENT INDIAN OUTBREAK. Washington, Aug. 2.—Acting Adjutant-General Kelton this morning received the following dispatch from General Howard, repeating one from Lieutenantcolonel Snyder of July 30, and one from General Miles of July 31:

"Two dispatches just received from General Miles indicate a more serious condition of affairs at San Carlos than has been prevously reported. General Miles is en route to that agency, and I am confident will do all in his power to prevent any Indians getting beyond the limits of the reservation. General Miles's dispatch is as follows:

My information is that ten bucks and two or three My intermation is that ten bucks and two or three women are out. They are probably in hiding near the San Carlos. I do not think the trouble will extend beyond those now out. Two scouts were wounded in the fight on Friday, and renegades seriously wounded an Indian just before taking to the hills.

"Colonel Snyder, commanding at San Carlos, writes that he will not send a force against them for the present, but will try to induce them to come in. Eventually he believes that they will have to

A QUIET DAY IN THE WESTFIELD INQUEST.

There were no new developments in the third day of a inquest in the Westfield, N. J., murder case yester-y. The jury visited the scene of the crime and made a ninute examination. On their return to the town hall several witnesses detailed the doings of Miller on the day previous to his disappearance. Edward J. MacDonald, the coachman for George W. Tice, whose place atjeins John T. Lawrence's, where Miller worked, stified that Miller told him of receiving $26 from Mrs. Lawrence on Saturday, June 23. Miller slept with him that night, and he saw him on Sunday afternoon in the village. Miller told him that he left his satchel at Track's with Frederick Baldwin. The witness said he was at Track's barn on July 5, and Haldwin, pointing to a hand-bag in a corner, said: "There's the dude's satchel." Philip Brady, who was with MacDonald at the time, corroborates him, adding that Baldwin said: "I wonder where he is!" Baldwin was not called to the stand. The inquest was adjourned till Monday, when it is reported that Baldwin will testify.

Ocean Grove, Aug. 2 (Special).—The temperance camp meeting, now in session here, was addressed this forenoon by Dr. G. H. Carey, of Brewster's N. Y. Ills subject was "Intemperance, its evils and its remedies." The speaker discussed the relative merits of license, statutory prohibition, and State and National constitutional prohibitory amendments, making a strong argument for constitutional amendment. He also advocated woman suffrage, and judging from the applause that greeted his remarks on this question, the camp meeting folks generally agreed with him. J. N. Steams made a brief address advocating a National Constitutional amendment, prohibiting not only the manufacturing of intextcants, but also their trasportation, importation and exportation. At half part 3 o'clock the selentific temperance conference met. It was conducted by Miss Julia Coleman, of New-York. The subject discussed was "The milder alcoholic beverages." Mrs. Emily L. McLaughlin, of Massachusetts, made the address of the evening to an immense audience.

The evening was warm enough to call into use a large number of fans, which moved continually and vigorously all over the house. No warmth in the atmosphere, however, could equal that of the enthusiastic congregation. As Mr. Harrison expressed it, the meeting had begun a month ago with a great shout, and was ending with a tornado of spiritual force, a cyclone of glory. Mr. Harrison himself was more energetic than ever. He announced as his text. "It is the Lord's doing." He said that he had comb to say farewell, and he did not want to preach; only to awaken those emotions of praise and thanksgiving in his hearers which he himself felt. He thanked the people who had come to hear him, and spoke

THE COURTS.

TO RESTRAIN THE PALMER ESTATE TRUSTERS Argument was heard by Justice O'Brien in the Supreme Court, Chambers, yesterday, on a motion for an injunction to restrain the trustees of the Courtlands Palmer estate to restrain the trustees of the Courtlandt Paimer estate from interfering with the rights of Charles E. Vernan, as lessee of the Morton House, in rebuilding the Union Square Theatre. Ex-Judge A. J. Dittenheefer, who appeared for the motion, said that it was intended by the defendants to creet an extra staircase with an exit in Fourteenth-st., and this would compet the occupants of that portion of the hotel to make a defour in order to reach their rooms. He asserted that a space of one foot had been taken from the hotel in rebuilding the westerly wall of the theatre, and that an exit from the theatre into the Morton House office was made without permission of the lessee of the hotel, and in violation of the lessee George H. Forster, representing the trustees, main-tained that all they did was in accordance with the plans filed with the Fire Department and the terms of the lease. The decision was reserved.
